

303rd BG (H) Combat Mission No. 348

30 March 1945

Submarine Building Yards at Bremen, Germany

Crews Dispatched: 38

Crews Lost: Capt. H.B. Johnson - 10 POW

Length of Mission: 6 hours, 40 minutes

Bomb Load: 8 x 500 lb H.E. M43 bombs

Bombing Altitudes: 26,000 & 24,900 ft

Ammo Fired: 1,390 rounds

Thirty-eight aircraft were dispatched to bomb Bremen. The submarine building yards was the first priority target (visual) and the second priority (H2X), although a different MPI was assigned. There were no other assigned targets. One aircraft returned early: #42-97546 Idaliza, 360BS (Lt. Lacker) had mechanical problems.

Weather conditions at Molesworth made assembly very difficult. In the target area there were 5/10 to 6/10 low clouds with tops at 8,000 feet. Twenty-eight Fortresses in the lead and low Squadrons dropped 234 500-lb. H.E. M43 bombs and 10 units of leaflets on the submarine yards. Bombing was by PFF (H2X) with very poor results. Lead Squadron bombs hit about 1,100 yards from the PFF MPI. Low Squadron bombs hit about 2,500 yards southwest of the PFF MPI. The high Squadron did not bomb. Their PFF signals were too weak to use and they could not bomb visually.

A few enemy aircraft were seen. One crew reported that an ME-262 made one pass at their B-17, but there were no real attacks on the Group. Moderate and accurate flak encountered at Bremen caused major battle damage to thirteen aircraft and minor damage to fifteen. Fighter support by 268 P-51s was good. Four crewmen in returning aircraft suffered flak wounds.

The Group lead aircraft, #44-8484 (No Name), 358BS, piloted by Capt. Hugh B. Johnson, was hit by flak over Bremen and sustained a hole in the right wing in the Nos. 3 and 4 gas tanks. Gas poured out from the hole and across the No. 3 supercharger. Capt. Johnson feathered the #3 & #4 props. The aircraft began to drop back and Deputy Leader, 1Lt. William L. McKimmie, was instructed to take over the lead in #44-8710 Idle Wheel, 427BS, 358BS crew. #44-8484 slid back and down through the formation, started off toward the right for awhile, and then came back behind and below the formation. It was flying normally except for one feathered engine when last seen. The Fortress made a crash-landing in a wheat field on the east bank of the Rhine River. The crew members were uninjured, but immediately captured by German troops and transported to POW camps.

Unknown ground crewman at work.
